

BETHEL GOSPEL CHAPEL HOME BIBLE STUDY GUIDE THE GOSPEL OF LUKE

For the next 19 weeks we will be studying the life and ministry of Jesus as it is recorded in the Gospel of Luke. We will be doing a general survey of the book on Wednesday evenings and on Sunday morning the ministry will highlight a specific part of each chapter. By handling the material in this way it is hoped that any difficulties which you encounter in your personal study will be resolved; that you will gain in knowledge and understanding of the Bible, and, as individuals and as a congregation, we will have a greater appreciation of what the Lord Jesus has done.

Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary defines "historian" as a writer of history, especially one who produces a scholarly synthesis. Luke was such a person. He has provided us with a record of all that Jesus began to do and teach (Acts 1:1). Luke, who was not an eye witness of the events, tells us that he had at his disposal accounts written by others, and the testimonies of people who were eye witnesses and were themselves servants of the Word. After careful research inspired by the Holy Spirit he wrote this Gospel in which he records "the salvation which was first announced by the Lord and was confirmed to us by those who heard him" Hebrews 2:3.

Luke is accurate in the information he gives. After doing research for many years in the region where the events described by Luke (particularly in Acts) were enacted, Ramsey states unambiguously that Luke's history is unsurpassed in respect of its trustworthiness." Summing up he wrote: "Luke is an historian of first rank; not merely are his statements of facts trustworthy, he is possessed of the true historic sense ... In short, this author should be placed along with the very greatest of historians." N.I.C. on the Gospel of Luke, pp. 39-40 Harrison, in Acts, The Expanding Church, pp. 21 & 25, states that Luke is accurate in the information he gives. "Geographical notes are accurate, as are the references to Roman officials, who are always called by the title appropriate to their position. For Acts the confirmation of historicity is overwhelming." Luke himself makes this claim for his record of the life of Jesus. He writes "so that you may know the certainty of the things you have been taught." Luke 1:4.

In his essay Christian Apologetics, C.S. Lewis makes a point which we need to keep in mind throughout these studies. He says that "the great difficulty is to get modern audiences to realize that you are preaching Christianity solely and simply because you happen to think it true. . This is the consistent argument of the New Testament. II Peter 1:16 "We did not follow cleverly invented stories when we told you about the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty."

After reading the assigned chapter(s) in Luke and before answering the study questions, record your own observations in regard to the information in the chapter. Also record any questions which this information raises in your mind. After answering the study questions write down any unresolved problems which you have, so that these may be discussed either in your group or by the speaker at the Family Bible Hour. Your study leader will be responsible to see that problems are brought to the attention of the speaker prior to Sunday morning.
