Nehemiah 13

Nehemiah, having finished what he undertook for the fencing and filling of the holy city, returned to the king his master, who was not willing to be long without him, as appears (Nehemiah 13:6; Nehemiah 13:6). But, after some time, he obtained leave to come back again to Jerusalem, to redress grievances, and purge out some corruptions which had crept in in his absence; and very active he was in reforming several abuses, which here we have an account of. I. He turned out from Israel the mixed multitude, the Moabites and Ammonites especially, Nehemiah 13:1-3. With a particular indignation, he expelled Tobiah out of the lodgings he had got in the court of the temple, Nehemiah 13:4-9. II. He secured the maintenance of the priests and Levites to them more firmly than it had been, Nehemiah 13:10-14. III. He restrained the profanation of the sabbath day, and provided for the due sanctification of it, Nehemiah 13:15-22. IV. He checked the growing mischief of marrying strange wives, Nehemiah 13:23-31.

Joel

WE are altogether uncertain concerning the time when this prophet prophesied; it is probable that it was about the same time Amos prophesied, not for the reason that the rabbin give, "Because Amos begins his prophecy with that wherewith Joel concludes his, The Lord shall roar out of Zion," but for the reason Dr. Lightfoot gives, "Because he speaks of the same judgments of locusts, and drought, and fire, that Amos laments, which is an intimation that they appeared about the same time, Amos in Israel and Joel in Judah. Hosea and Obadiah prophesied about the same time; and it appears that Amos prophesied in the days of Jeroboam, the second king of Israel, Amos 7:10. God sent a variety of prophets, that they might strengthen the hands one of another, and that out of the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be established. In this prophecy, I. The desolations made by hosts of noxious insects is described, Joel 1:1-2; Joel 1:1-2 Joel 1:1-2; Joel 1:1-2 II. The people are hereupon called to repentance, Joel 2:12-17; Joel 2:12-17 III. Promises are made of the return of mercy upon their repentance (Joel 2:18-32; Joel 2:18-32), and promises of the pouring out of the Spirit in the latter days. IV. The cause of God's people is pleaded against their enemies, whom God would in due time reckon with (Joel 3:1-21; Joel 3:1-21); and glorious things are spoken of the gospel--Jerusalem and of the prosperity and perpetuity of it.
